Menominee Tribal Legislative & Chief of Police Election

(Keshena, WI) – On January 14-15, 2015 the Menominee Indian Tribe held the General Election to determine the Legislative Elects who will occupy a seat on the Tribal Legislature for a term of (3) three years and new Tribal Police Chief who will hold a 7-year term. The election results have been certified and reported by the Election Commission as follows,

2015-2017 Menominee Tribal Legislators

Gary Besaw (I)	636
Myrna Warrington	471
Joan Delabreau (I)	450

Remaining Totals

Tasha Caldwell	430
Randolph "Randy" Reiter	403
Llewellyn "Lew" Boyd	395

Tribal Chief of Police

Mark K. Waukau Sr.	569
Jerrit O'Kimosh	486

"I would like to extend my sincere congratulations to Incumbent Legislators, Gary Besaw and Joan Delabreau. In addition, I would like to welcome Myrna Warrington back to the Legislature and Mark Waukau Sr. to the Tribal Police Department. The Tribe will undoubtedly benefit from the expertise, knowledge, and experience that each of these candidates bring to our Tribal Government" stated Chairwoman Boivin.

The Menominee Tribal Legislature will gather again at the annual Reorganizational Meeting on Monday February 9, 2015 at the Menominee Nation Casino Convention Center. At which time, the new and returning candidates will be sworn into office.
